

Certificate of Appreciation

The Greater Attleboro Area
Volunteer Recognition Day
April 15, 2016

- Whereas April 10, 2016 through April 16, 2016 has been declared National Volunteer Week throughout the country; and
- Whereas This is the 31st year that Sturdy Memorial Hospital has sponsored the Volunteer Day festivities and luncheon; and
- Whereas Volunteers selflessly provide their time and talents to lighten the burden of others; and
- Whereas With this year's theme "Volunteers - Giving Time-Touching Hearts" we recognize the generosity of heart and soul that comes from people who volunteer on a regular basis.

Now Therefore, I, Kevin J. Dumas, Mayor of the City of Attleboro, take great pleasure in honoring the volunteers of

WOMEN AT WORK MUSEUM

and in expressing, on behalf of all residents of the City of Attleboro, our most sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks for giving your time and talent to make a difference in our lives each and every day.

Signed and sealed this 15th day of April in the year 2016

Kevin J. Dumas, Mayor
